Australian Men 35 km All-Time Ranking List

Last Updated: Tim Erickson, 27/08/2025

Once 35km became the official long distance walk, this new category was added to my ranking lists. Alas, it only had a short time as the long distance international standard, being replaced by the Marathon Walk as of 1st October 2025.

VRWC has held a 35km club championship since 2010 so the times from these races were able to be used for ranking purposes.

I am also indebted to Brent Vallance for the large number of 35km splits which he has passed on from international 50km races involving Australian walkers and to Emmanuel Tardi for the 35km splits from many of the early Racewalking World Cups. These have also been incorporated to produce an initial more comprehensive ranking list.

Now there are possibly faster times done in 50km walks, most notably Nathan Deakes' 50km world record from 2006, but without official 35km splits, such times cannot be added into the mix.

I do remember that when our 50km events were held around Albert Park Lake, the lap was 5km. There will be official 35km splits in those races from the likes of Willi Sawall, Bob Gardiner, etc. But that's a job for another time.

I welcome all verifiable additions. Just email me on tim.erickson02@gmail.com
